

PATHWAYS to SUCCESS

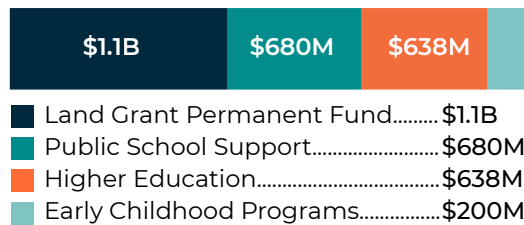

TEACHER RESOURCES

Pathways to Success supports teachers and brings energy to the classroom

NMOGA's Pathways to Success website helps connect teachers with energy-focused education materials and a network of energy professionals passionate about careers in the industry. From supporting energy learning to contributing millions in public school support, the oil and gas industry is powering education across New Mexico!

"This platform opens doors to meaningful careers in the energy industry, giving students the resources they need to thrive in a field that powers our state. When we invest in strong relationships, high expectations, and meaningful learning, we shape a future filled with possibility." – Nancy Orta, 2026 NM Teacher of the Year
